

Compliance with the Corporate Governance Code

The discussions on corporate governance in the Netherlands resulted in the first Dutch Corporate Governance Code which became effective as of 1 January 2004. This code was updated in 2008, in 2016, in 2022 and recently in March 2025. A decree proposal by the Dutch government to designate the Code as applicable to Dutch companies with a public listing has been put forward to parliament. Dutch listed companies are to report on their application of the Code and to explain any deviations from its best practice provisions.

In this overview you will find the full text of the Dutch Corporate Governance Code – consisting of the principles and related best practice provisions – and the way Royal BAM Group applies these as per 10 December 2025.

	Principle and best practice determination	Comply or explain	Explanation
1.	SUSTAINABLE LONG-TERM VALUE CREATION
1.1.	Principle: The Management Board is responsible for the continuity of the company and its affiliated enterprise and for sustainable long-term value creation by the company and its affiliated enterprise. The Management Board takes into account the impact the actions of the company and its affiliated enterprise have on people and the environment and to that end weighs the stakeholder interests that are relevant in this context. The Supervisory Board monitors the Management Board in this regard.	Comply	BAM endorses this principle. It is described in clause 3.2.2 EBECR and clauses 1.2 and 1.3 schedule 4 SBR.
1.1.1.	Strategy for sustainable long-term value creation The Management Board should develop a view on sustainable long-term value creation by the company and its affiliated enterprise and should formulate a strategy in line with this. The Management Board should formulate specific objectives in this regard. Depending on market dynamics, it may be necessary to make short-term adjustments to the strategy. When developing the strategy, attention should in any event be paid to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">i. the strategy's implementation and feasibility;ii. the business model applied by the company and the market in which the company and its affiliated enterprise operate;iii. opportunities and risks for the company;iv. the company's operational and financial goals and their impact on its future position in relevant markets;v. the interests of the stakeholders;vi. the impact of the company and its affiliated enterprise in the field of sustainability, including the effects on people and the environment;vii. paying a fair share of tax to the countries in which the company operates; andviii. the impact of new technologies and changing business models.	Comply	General responsibility described in clause 3.2.2 EBECR. More information to be found in the 'Value creation' chapter of the AR.
1.1.2.	Involvement of the Supervisory Board
	The Management Board should engage the Supervisory Board early on in formulating the strategy for realising sustainable long-term value creation. The	Comply	When preparing the 2024 – 2026 strategy, the Supervisory Board was involved extensively and early in the process. A

	Management Board renders account to the Supervisory Board of the strategy and the explanatory notes to that strategy.		number of designated meetings were held for input and rendering account of progress.
1.1.3.	Role of the Supervisory Board
	The Supervisory Board should supervise the manner in which the Management Board implements the sustainable long term value creation strategy. The Supervisory Board should regularly discuss the strategy, the implementation of the strategy and the principal risks associated with it. In the report drawn up by the Supervisory Board, an account is given of its involvement in the establishment of the strategy, and the way in which it monitors its implementation.	Comply	In accordance with article 18.2 AoA the Executive Board annually updates the Supervisory Board on the progress of the strategy. See also clause 3.23.7 EBECR and clause 3.26.4 SBR as well as clause 1.1.4.c ACC. In the AR more information is provided in the 'Business performance' chapter and in the 'Report of the Supervisory Board to shareholders' paragraph.
1.1.4.	Accountability of the Management Board
	In the management report, the Management Board should give a more detailed explanation of its view on sustainable long-term value creation and the strategy to realise this and describe the contributions made to sustainable long-term value creation in the past financial year. In addition, it describes the formulated objectives, what effects the company's products, services and activities have had on people and the environment, how the interests of stakeholders have been considered, what action has been taken in that context and the extent to which the set objectives have been attained. The Management Board should report on both the short-term and long-term developments.	Comply	The view of the Executive Board with regard to sustainable long-term value creation and strategy are described in the 'Value Creation' chapter, specifically in the 'Strategy' paragraph of the AR.
1.1.5	Dialogue with stakeholders
	To ensure that the interests of the relevant stakeholders of the company are considered when the sustainability aspects of the strategy are determined, the company should draw up an outline policy for effective dialogue with those stakeholders. The relevant stakeholders and the company should be prepared to engage in a dialogue. The company should facilitate this dialogue unless, in the opinion of the Management Board, this is not in the interests of the company and its affiliated enterprise. The company should publish the policy on its website.	Comply	The Company has developed an outline policy for effective dialogue with its relevant stakeholders as part of its Sustainability policy. The outline policy for effective dialogue with stakeholders is published on the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/sustainability/dialogue-with-stakeholders .

1.2	RISK MANAGEMENT
	Principle: The company should have adequate internal risk management and control systems in place. The Management Board is responsible for identifying and managing the risks associated with the company's strategy and activities.	Comply	See clauses 3.2.3 and 3.23.7 EBECR.
1.2.1.	Risk assessment
	The Management Board should identify and analyse the risks associated with the strategy and activities of the company and its affiliated enterprise. The identification and analysis should cover in any case the strategic, operational, compliance and reporting risks. The Management Board is responsible for establishing the risk appetite, and also the measures that are put in place in order to counter the risks been taken.	Comply	See clauses 3.2.3 and 3.23.7 EBECR. See also the 'Risk management and governance' chapter of the AR.
1.2.2.	Implementation
	Based on the risk assessment, as referred to in best practice provision 1.2.1, the Management Board should design, implement and maintain adequate internal risk management and control systems. To the extent relevant, these systems should be integrated into the work processes within the company and its affiliated enterprise it, and should be familiar to those whose work they are relevant to.	Comply	The Company's Risk & Control Committee develops and supervises the internal risk management and control systems. The Company's approach on risk management and control systems is described further in the 'Risk management and governance' chapter of the AR. See also clause 1.1.5.d ACC.
1.2.3.	Monitoring of effectiveness
	The Management Board should monitor the design and operation of the internal risk management and control systems and should carry out a systematic assessment of their design and effectiveness at least once a year. Attention should be given to observed weaknesses, instances of misconduct and irregularities, indications from whistleblowers, lessons learned and findings from the internal audit function and the external auditor. Where necessary, improvements should be made to internal risk management and control systems.	Comply	See clause 3.23.7 EBECR and clause 3.9.5.e SBR.
1.3	INTERNAL AUDIT FUNCTION
	Principle: The task of the internal audit function is to assess the design and the operation of the internal risk management and control systems. The Management Board is responsible for the internal audit function. The	Comply	See clause 3.2.3 EBECR and clause 1.5.j schedule 4 SBR.

	Supervisory Board oversees the internal audit function and maintains regular contact with the person fulfilling this function.
1.3.1	Appointment and dismissal
	The Management Board both appoints and dismisses the senior internal auditor. Both the appointment and the dismissal of the senior internal auditor should be submitted to the Supervisory Board for approval, along with the recommendation issued by the audit committee.	Comply	See clauses 3.2.3. and 3.2.6 EBECR, clause 1.5.j schedule 4 SBR and clause 1.1.3.a ACC.
1.3.2.	Assessment of the internal audit function
	The Management Board should assess the way in which the internal audit function fulfils its responsibility annually, taking into account the audit committee's opinion. An independent third party should assess the performance of the internal audit function at least every five years.	Comply	The Executive Board meets with the internal auditor periodically in order to discuss the internal audit plan, progress, observations and action. The role of the Audit Committee is described in clause 1.1.3.b ACC.
1.3.3.	Internal audit plan
	The internal audit function should draw up an audit plan, involving the Management Board, the audit committee and the external auditor in this process. The audit plan should be submitted to the Management Board, and then to the Supervisory Board, for approval. In this internal audit plan, attention should be paid to the interaction with the external auditor.	Comply	See clauses 3.2.3 and 3.2.6 EBECR. The audit plan of the internal auditor is, after submitting to the executive board, a fixed agenda item on the meeting of the Audit Committee (review) and – subsequently – the Supervisory Board (approval).
1.3.4.	Performance of work
	The internal audit function should have sufficient resources to execute the internal audit plan and have access to information that is important for the performance of its work. The internal audit function should have direct access to the audit committee and the external auditor. Records should be kept of how the audit committee is informed by the internal audit function.	Comply	The internal auditor is present at all meetings of the Audit Committee. Minutes are taken of these meetings and documents shared with the Audit Committee are archived.
1.3.5.	Reports of findings
	The internal audit function should report its audit results to the Management Board and the audit committee and should inform the external auditor. The research findings of the internal audit function should, at least, include the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> i. any flaws in the effectiveness of the internal risk management and control systems; ii. any findings and observations with a material impact on the risk profile of the company and its affiliated enterprise; and 	Comply	The internal auditor is present at every meeting of the Audit Committee and provides a quarterly update to the latter on its activities, findings and observations as well as recommendations. A summary of these discussions is shared with the full Supervisory Board.

	iii. any failings in the follow-up of recommendations made by the internal audit function. The internal audit function should report hierarchically to a member of the Management Board, preferably to the CEO.
1.3.6.	Absence of an internal audit department
	If there is no separate department for the internal audit function, the Supervisory Board will assess annually whether adequate alternative measures have been taken, partly on the basis of a recommendation issued by the Audit Committee, and will consider whether it is necessary to establish an internal audit department. The Supervisory Board should include the conclusions, along with any resulting recommendations and alternative measures, in the report of the Supervisory Board.	N.A.
1.4.	RISK MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTABILITY
	Principle: The Management Board should render account of the effectiveness of the design and the operation of the internal risk management and control systems.	Comply	See the 'Risk management and governance' chapter of the AR.
1.4.1.	Accountability to the Supervisory Board
	The Management Board should discuss the effectiveness of the design and operation of the internal risk management and control systems referred to in best practice provisions 1.2.1 to 1.2.3 inclusive with the audit committee, and render account of this to the Supervisory Board.	Comply	See clause 3.23.7 EBECR. The subject is discussed annually in a meeting of the Audit Committee and – subsequently – the Supervisory Board.
1.4.2.	Accountability in the management report
	In the management report, the Management Board should render account of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. the execution of the risk assessment, with a description of the principal risks facing the company in relation to its risk appetite, as referred to in best practice provision 1.2.1; ii. the design and operation of the internal risk management and control systems during the past financial year and which frameworks were used; iii. its assessment of the effectiveness of the internal risk management and control systems in relation to operational, compliance and reporting risks for the past financial year; 	Comply	See the 'Risk management and governance' chapter of the AR.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> iv. any major failings in the internal risk management and control systems which have been observed in the financial year, any significant changes made to these systems and any major improvements planned, along with a confirmation that these issues have been discussed with the audit committee and the Supervisory Board; and v. the sensitivity of the results of the company to material changes in external factors.
1.4.3.	Statement by the Management Board
	The Management Board should state in the management report, with clear substantiation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. that the report provides sufficient insights into any failings in the effectiveness of the internal risk management and control systems; ii. that the systems provide reasonable assurance that the financial reporting does not contain any material inaccuracies; iii. that these systems provide at least limited assurance that sustainability reporting is free from material misstatements; iv. what level of certainty these systems provide that operational and compliance risks are effectively managed; v. that, based on the current state of affairs, it is justified that the financial reporting is prepared on a going concern basis; and vi. that the report states the material risks, as referred to in best practice provision 1.2.1, and uncertainties, to the extent that are relevant to the expectation of the company's continuity for a period of twelve months after the preparation of the report. 	Comply	See the 'Risk management and governance' chapter of the AR.
1.5.	ROLE OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD
	Principle: The Supervisory Board should supervise the policies carried out by the Management Board and the general affairs of the company and its affiliated enterprise. In so doing, the Supervisory Board should also focus on the effectiveness of the company's internal risk management and control systems and the integrity and quality of the financial reporting.	Comply	The role of the Supervisory Board is described in article 18.2 AoA and clauses 1.1, 1.5.f and g schedule 4 SBR.

1.5.1.	Duties and responsibilities of the Audit Committee
	The audit committee undertakes preparatory work for the Supervisory Board's decision-making regarding the supervision of the integrity and quality of the company's financial and sustainability reporting and the effectiveness of the company's internal risk management and control systems, as referred to in best practice provisions 1.2.1 to 1.2.3 inclusive. Among other things, it focuses on monitoring the Management Board with regard to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. relations with, and compliance with recommendations and following up of comments by, the internal and external auditors; ii. the funding of the company; and iii. the company's tax policy. 	Comply	See clauses 1.1.2, 1.1.4.a and 1.1.4.c ACC and 3.9.5.e SBR. The matters addressed in this best practice are periodically reviewed in the Audit Committee.
1.5.2.	Attendance of the Management Board, internal auditor and external auditor at Audit Committee consultations
	The chief financial officer, the internal auditor and the external auditor should attend the audit committee meetings, unless the audit committee determines otherwise. The audit committee should decide whether and, if so, when the chairman of the Management Board should attend its meetings.	Comply	See clause 2.1.1.a ACC.
1.5.3.	Audit Committee report
	The audit committee should report to the Supervisory Board on its deliberations and findings. This report must, at least, include the following information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. the methods used to assess the effectiveness of the design and operation of the internal risk management and control systems referred to in best practice provisions 1.2.1 to 1.2.3, inclusive; ii. the methods used to assess the effectiveness of the internal and external audit processes; iii. material considerations concerning financial and sustainability reporting; and iv. the way in which material risks and uncertainties referred to in best practice provisions 1.4.2 and 1.4.3, have been analysed and discussed, along with a description of the most important findings of the audit committee, and the way if substantiating the statement meant in provision 1.4.3. 	Comply	See clauses 3.1 and 3.2 ACC. The Audit Committee annually reports on these matters to the Supervisory Board.

1.5.4.	Supervisory Board
	The Supervisory Board should discuss the items reported on by the Audit Committee as per of best practice provision 1.5.3.	Comply	See clause 3.9.4.g SBR. These items are annually reviewed by the Supervisory Board.
1.6.	APPOINTMENT AND ASSESSMENT OF THE FUNCTIONING OF THE EXTERNAL AUDITOR
	Principle: The Supervisory Board should submit the nomination for the appointment of the external auditor to the General Meeting, and should supervise the external auditor's functioning.	Comply	See clause 1.5.h, schedule 4 SBR.
1.6.1.	Functioning and appointment
	The Audit Committee should report annually to the Supervisory Board on the functioning of, and the developments in, the relationship with the external auditor. The Audit Committee should advise the Supervisory Board regarding the external auditor's nomination for appointment/reappointment or dismissal and should prepare the selection of the external auditor. The audit committee should give due consideration to the Management Board's observations during the aforementioned work. Also on this basis, the Supervisory Board should determine its nomination for the appointment of the external auditor to the general meeting.	Comply	See clauses 1.1.3.c and 1.1.4.h ACC. It is a fixed agenda item on the meetings of the Audit Committee and Supervisory Board. At least once every four years a thorough assessment of the functioning of the external auditor will be conducted by the Executive Board together with the Supervisory Board and Audit Committee (clause 3.23.6. EBECR).
1.6.2.	Informing the external auditor about their functioning
	The Supervisory Board should give the external auditor a general idea of the content of the reports relating to their functioning.	Comply	The conclusions of the evaluation of the functioning of the external auditor are shared and discussed with the latter.
1.6.3.	Engagement
	The Audit Committee should submit a proposal to the Supervisory Board for the external auditor's engagement to audit the financial statements. The Management Board should play a facilitating role in this process. In formulating the terms of engagement, attention should be paid to the scope of the audit, the materiality to be used and remuneration for the audit. The Supervisory Board should resolve on the engagement.	Comply	See clauses 1.5.i, schedule 4 SBR and 1.1.4.h ACC. The Audit Committee annually submits a proposal which subsequently is discussed in the Supervisory Board.
1.6.4.	Accountability
	The main conclusions of the Supervisory Board regarding the external auditor's nomination and the outcomes of the external auditor selection process should be communicated to the general meeting.	Comply	When applicable, an explanation will be provided to the Annual General Meeting.

1.6.5.	Departure of the external auditor
	The company should publish a press release in the event of the early termination of the relationship with the external audit firm. The press release should explain the reasons for this early termination.	Comply	If and when applicable, a press release will be published.
1.7.	PERFORMANCE OF THE EXTERNAL AUDITOR'S WORK
	Principle: The audit committee and the external auditor should discuss the audit plan and the findings of the external auditor based on the work the external auditor has undertaken. The Management Board and the Supervisory Board should maintain regular contact with the external auditor.	Comply	See clause 1.1.5.b ACC. This is an annual item on the agenda of the Audit Committee.
1.7.1.	Provision of information to the external auditor
	The Management Board should ensure that the external auditor will receive all information that is necessary for the performance of his work in a timely fashion. The Management Board should give the external auditor the opportunity to respond to the information that has been provided.	Comply	See clauses 3.2.3.j and 3.23.5 EBECR and clause 1.1.5.b ACC.
1.7.2.	Audit plan and external auditor's findings
	The external auditor should discuss the draft audit plan with the Management Board before presenting it to the audit committee. The audit committee should annually discuss with the external auditor: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> the scope and materiality of the audit plan and the principal risks of the annual reporting identified by the external auditor in the audit plan; and based also on the documents from which the audit plan was developed, the findings and outcomes of the audit work on the financial statements and the management letter. 	Comply	The draft audit plan of the external auditor is a fixed agenda item on the meetings of the Audit Committee (review) and the Supervisory Board (approval).
1.7.3.	Publication of financial reports
	The audit committee should determine whether and, if so, how the external auditor should be involved in the content and publication of financial reports other than the annual accounts.	Comply	See clause 1.1.5.b.(iii) ACC.

1.7.4.	Consultations with the external auditor outside the Management Board's presence
	The audit Committee should meet with the external auditor as often as it considers necessary, but at least once per year, outside the presence of the Management Board.	Comply	See clause 2.1.1.b ACC.
1.7.5	Examination of discussion points arising between the external auditor and the Management Board
	The Supervisory Board should be permitted to examine the most important points of discussion arising between the external auditor and the Management Board based on the draft management letter or the draft audit report.	Comply	The draft management letters are shared with the Supervisory Board for review and discussion.
1.7.6	External auditor's attendance of Supervisory Board meetings
	The external auditor should in any event attend the meeting of the Supervisory Board at which the report of the external auditor on the audit of the financial statements is discussed.	Comply	This is an annual item on the agenda of the Audit Committee.
2.	EFFECTIVE MANAGEMENT AND SUPERVISION
2.1.	COMPOSITION AND SIZE
	Principle: The Management Board, the Supervisory Board and the Executive Committee (if any) should be composed in such a way as to ensure a degree of diversity appropriate to the company with regard to expertise, experience, competencies, other personal qualities, sex or gender identity, age, nationality and cultural or other background.	Comply	The size, composition and available capabilities of both the Executive Board and the Supervisory Board are evaluated annually in order to assure that these bodies are able to carry out their duties properly.
2.1.1.	Profile
	The Supervisory Board should prepare a profile, taking account of the nature and the activities of the enterprise affiliated with the company. The profile should address: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> the desired expertise and background of the Supervisory Board members; the desired diverse composition of the Supervisory Board, referred to in best practice provision 2.1.5; the size of the Supervisory Board; and the independence of the Supervisory Board members. 	Comply	See clause 2.1.1 and schedule 2 SBR. The profile is discussed in the Supervisory Board annually (see clause 9.3.5.b SBR). See also article 18.4 AoA for requirements with regard to the independence of the members of the Supervisory Board.

	The profile should be posted on the company's website.		The profile is set out in schedule 2 SBR, which rules are available at the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/about-bam/corporate-governance/articles-of-association-rules-and-codes .
2.1.2.	Personal information

Comply	See the 'Supervisory Board and Executive Board' paragraph in the AR.
2.1.3.	Executive committee
	If the Management Board works with an Executive Committee, the Management Board should take account of the checks and balances that are part of the two-tier system. This means, among other things, that the Management Board's expertise and responsibilities are safeguarded and the Supervisory Board is informed adequately. The Supervisory Board should supervise this whilst paying specific attention to the dynamics and the relationship between the Management Board and the Executive Committee. In the management report, account should be rendered of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. the choice to work with an Executive Committee; ii. the role, duty and composition of the Executive Committee; and iii. how the contacts between the Supervisory Board and the Executive Committee have been given shape. 	Comply	See clauses 3.2.2, 3.2.7, 3.4.1, 3.23.1 and 3.26.3 EBECR and clauses 3.11.2, 3.11.4 and 3.26.1 SBR. See also the 'Executive Committee' paragraph in the AR.
2.1.4.	Expertise
	Each Supervisory Board member and each Management Board member should have the specific expertise required for the fulfilment of his duties. Each Supervisory Board member should be capable of assessing the broad outline of the overall management.	Comply	See clauses 2.2.2 and 2.2.3 schedule 2 and clause 1.1.1.a schedule 8 SBR.

2.1.5.	Diversity policy
	The Company should have a D&I policy for the enterprise. The D&I policy should in any case set specific, appropriate and ambitious targets in order to achieve a good balance in gender diversity and the other D&I aspects of relevance to the company with regard to the composition of the Management Board, the Supervisory Board, the Executive Committee (if any) and a category of employees in managerial positions to be determined by the Management Board. The Supervisory Board adopt the D&I policy for the composition of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board. The Management Board should adopt the D&I policy for the Executive Committee (if applicable), the senior management and for the rest of the workforce with the prior approval of the Supervisory Board.	Comply	The Company has developed a D&I policy, which was adopted by the Supervisory Board in May 2023. See also the 'Social performance', 'Corporate governance and capital information' and the 'Report of the Supervisory Board' paragraphs in the AR.
2.1.6.	Accountability about diversity
	The corporate governance statement should explain the D&I policy and the way in which it is implemented in practice. This includes the following information: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> the goals of the D&I policy; the plan to achieve the D&I; the results of the D&I policy in the past financial year and –where relevant and applicable – insight into the inflow, progression and retention of employees; and the gender composition of the Management Board, the Supervisory Board, the Executive Committee (if any) and senior management at the end of the past financial year. If one or more goals for the composition of the Management Board, the Supervisory Board, the Executive Committee (if any) and/or senior management are not achieved, an explanation of the reasons should be included in the corporate governance statement, along with an explanation as to which measures are being taken to attain the goals, and by when this is likely to be achieved.	Comply	See the 'Social performance', 'Corporate governance and capital information' and the 'Report of the Supervisory Board' paragraphs in the AR.
2.1.7.	Independence of the Supervisory Board
	The composition of the Supervisory Board is such that the members are able to operate independently and critically vis-à-vis one another, the Management Board, and any particular interests involved.	Comply	See article 18.3 AoA and clause 2.4 schedule 2 SBR. All members of the Supervisory Board are to be considered as independent as referred to in best practice provision 2.1.8.

	In order to safeguard its independence, the Supervisory Board is composed in accordance with the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. any one of the criteria referred to in best practice provision 2.1.8, sections i. to v. inclusive should be applicable to at most one Supervisory Board member; ii. the total number of Supervisory Board members to whom the criteria referred to in best practice provision 2.1.8 are applicable should account for less than half of the total number of Supervisory Board members; and iii. for each shareholder, or group of affiliated shareholders, who directly or indirectly hold more than ten percent of the shares in the company, there is at most one Supervisory Board member who can be considered to be affiliated with or representing them as stipulated in best practice provision 2.1.8, sections vi. and vii.
2.1.8.	Independence of Supervisory Board members
	A Supervisory Board member is not independent if they or their spouse, registered partner or life companion, foster child or relative by blood or marriage up to the second degree: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. has been an employee or member of the Management Board of the company (including associated companies as referred to in Section 5:48 of the Financial Supervision Act (Wet op het financieel toezicht / Wft)) in the five years prior to the appointment; ii. receives personal financial compensation from the company, or a company associated with it, other than the compensation received for the work performed as a Supervisory Board member and in so far as this is not in keeping with the normal course of business; iii. has had an important business relationship with the company or a company associated with it in the year prior to the appointment. This includes in any event the case where the Supervisory Board member, or the firm of which he is a shareholder, partner, associate or adviser, has acted as adviser to the company (consultant, external auditor, civil notary or lawyer) and the case where the Supervisory Board member; iv. is a Management Board member or an employee of a bank with which the company has a lasting and significant relationship; v. is a member of the Management Board of a company in which a member of the Management Board of the company which he supervises is a Supervisory Board member; 	Comply	All members of the Supervisory Board are to be considered as independent in accordance with the Code. See also article 18.3 AoA.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> vi. has temporarily performed management duties during the previous twelve months in the absence or incapacity of Management Board members; vii. has a shareholding in the company of at least ten percent, taking into account the shareholding of natural persons or legal entities cooperating with him or her on the basis of an express or tacit, verbal or written agreement; viii. is a member of the Management Board or Supervisory Board – or is a representative in some other way – of a legal entity which holds at least ten percent of the shares in the company, unless the entity is a group company.
2.1.9.	Independence of the chairman of the Supervisory Board
	The chairman of the Supervisory Board should not be a former member of the Management Board of the company and should be independent within the meaning of best practice provision 2.1.8.	Comply	See clause 3.4.2 SBR.
2.1.10.	Accountability regarding Supervisory Board member independence
	The report of the Supervisory Board should state that, in the opinion of the Supervisory Board, the independence requirements referred to in best practice provisions 2.1.7 to 2.1.9 inclusive have been fulfilled and, if applicable, should also state which Supervisory Board member(s), if any, it does not consider to be independent.	Comply	See the 'Report of the Supervisory Board' paragraph in the AR.
2.2.	APPOINTMENT, SUCCESSION AND EVALUATION
	Principle: The Supervisory Board should ensure that a formal and transparent procedure is in place for the appointment and reappointment of Management Board and Supervisory Board members, as well as a sound plan for the succession of Management Board and Supervisory Board members, in accordance with the D&I policy. The functioning of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board as a collective and the functioning of individual members should be evaluated on a regular basis.	Comply	The procedure for the (re-)appointment of members of the Executive Board and Supervisory Board is described in clauses 15 and 18 AoA and clause 3.27.4.d SBR and clauses 1.5.b and 1.5.d schedule 4 SBR. Succession planning and talent management are discussed in the Supervisory Board annually. The evaluation of the functioning of the boards and its members takes place annually (clauses 3.9.5.a and c SBR and 1.1.1.b and c NCC).
2.2.1	Appointment and reappointment periods – Management Board members
	A Management Board member is appointed for a maximum period of four years. A member may be reappointed for a term of not more than four years at a time,	Comply	See clause 15.9 AoA for the Executive Board. See also clause 3.4.1 EBECR for the diversity objectives.

	which reappointment should be prepared in a timely fashion. The D&I objectives from best practice provision 2.1.5 should be considered in the preparation of the appointment or reappointment.
2.2.2	Appointment and reappointment periods – Supervisory Board members
	A Supervisory Board member is appointed for a period of four years and may then be reappointed once for another four-year period. The Supervisory Board member may then subsequently be reappointed again for a period of two years, which appointment may be extended by at most two years. In the event of a reappointment after an eight-year period, reasons should be given in the report of the Supervisory Board. In any appointment or reappointment, the profile referred to in best practice provision 2.1.1 should be observed.	Comply	See clause 20.1 AoA for the Supervisory Board and clause 1.3 schedule 2 SBR.
2.2.3	Early retirement
	A member of the Supervisory Board or the Management Board should retire early in the event of inadequate functioning, structural incompatibility of interests, and in other instances in which this is deemed necessary by the Supervisory Board. In the event of the early retirement of a member of the Management Board or the Supervisory Board, the company should issue a press release mentioning the reasons for the departure.	Comply	If and when applicable, a press release will be published in case of the early retirement of a member of the Supervisory Board or Executive Board, including the reasons for departure.
2.2.4	Succession
	The Supervisory Board should ensure that the company has a sound plan in place for the succession of Management Board and Supervisory Board members that is aimed at retaining the balance in the requisite expertise, experience and diversity. Due regard should be given to the profile referred to in best practice provision 2.1.1 in drawing up the plan for Supervisory Board members. The Supervisory Board should also draw up a retirement schedule in order to avoid, as much as possible, Supervisory Board members retiring simultaneously. The retirement schedule should be published on the company's website.	Comply	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Company operates a succession plan for the Supervisory Board, the Executive Board, the Executive Committee, as well as for the other senior management of the Company. • Succession planning and talent management are fixed agenda items on the agenda of the Nomination Committee and the Supervisory Board (clauses 1.1.1.d NCC and 3.9.5.j SBR). • Nominations for vacancies in the Executive Board are discussed in the Supervisory Board (clauses 1.1.1.e NCC and 3.9.4.j SBR). • The rotation schedule for the Supervisory Board (article 20.1 AoA and schedule 3 SBR) is published on the Company's website:

			https://www.bam.com/en/about-bam/management/supervisory-board. It has been prepared in accordance with clause 3.2.3 SBR.
2.2.5	Duties of the selection and appointment committee
	The selection and appointment committee should prepare the Supervisory Board's decision-making and report to the Supervisory Board on its deliberations and findings. The selection and appointment committee should in any event focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. drawing up selection criteria and appointment procedures for Management Board members and Supervisory Board members; ii. periodically assessing the size and composition of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board, and making a proposal for a composition profile of the Supervisory Board; iii. periodically assessing the functioning of individual Management Board members and Supervisory Board members, and reporting on this to the Supervisory Board; iv. drawing up a plan for the succession of Management Board members and Supervisory Board members; v. making proposals for appointments and reappointments; and vi. supervising the policy of the Management Board regarding the selection criteria and appointment procedures for senior management. 	Comply	At BAM, the selection and appointment committee is called the Nomination Committee. The responsibilities of this committee are set out in the Nomination Committee Charter. See also clauses 1.1.1.a up to and including 1.1.1.g NCC.
2.2.6	Evaluation by the Supervisory Board
	At least once per year, outside the presence of the Management Board, the Supervisory Board should evaluate its own functioning, the functioning of the various committees of the Supervisory Board and that of the individual Supervisory Board members, and should discuss the conclusions that are attached to the evaluation. In doing so, attention should be paid to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. substantive aspects, conduct and culture, the mutual interaction and the interaction with the Management Board; ii. events that occurred in practice from which lessons may be learned; and iii. the desired profile, composition, competencies and expertise of the Supervisory Board. 	Comply	See clause 3.32.2 SBR. The evaluation is also a fixed agenda item of the annual meeting schedule for the Supervisory Board and – in preparation thereof – the Nomination Committee (clauses 1.1.1.b and c NCC).

	The evaluation should take place periodically under the supervision of an external expert.
2.2.7	Evaluation of the Management Board
	At least once per year, outside the presence of the Management Board, the Supervisory Board should evaluate both the functioning of the Management Board as a whole and that of the individual Management Board members, and should discuss the conclusions that must be attached to the evaluation, such also in light of the succession of Management Board members. At least once annually, the Management Board, too, should evaluate its own functioning as a whole and that of the individual Management Board members.	Comply	See clauses 3.11.4 and 3.30.1 SBR and 3.26.3 EBECR. Also the evaluation of the Supervisory Board is a fixed agenda item of the annual meeting schedule for the Supervisory Board and – in preparation thereof – the Nomination Committee (clauses 1.1.1.b and c NCC).
2.2.8	Evaluation accountability
	The Supervisory Board's report should state: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> how the evaluation of the Supervisory Board, the various committees and the individual Supervisory Board members has been carried out; how the evaluation of the Management Board and the individual Management Board members has been carried out; the main findings and conclusions of the evaluations; and what has been or will be done with the conclusions from the evaluations. 	Comply	See the 'Report of the Supervisory Board' paragraph in the AR.
2.3	ORGANISATION OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD AND REPORTS
	Principle: The Supervisory Board should ensure that it functions effectively. The Supervisory Board should establish committees to prepare the Supervisory Board's decision-making. The foregoing does not affect the responsibility of the Supervisory Board as an organ and of the individual members of the Supervisory Board for obtaining information and forming an independent opinion.	Comply	See clauses 3.26.1 and 1.5.f schedule 4 SBR for the responsibility to function effectively. See for the establishment of committees clause 3.5 SBR. The responsibility to obtain information and form an independent opinion is described in clause 3.5.2 SBR.
2.3.1	Supervisory Board's terms of reference
	The division of duties within the Supervisory Board and the procedure of the Supervisory Board should be laid down in terms of reference. The Supervisory Board's terms of reference should include a paragraph dealing with its relations with the Management Board, the general meeting, the employee participation body (if any) and the Executive Committee (if any). The terms of reference should be posted on the company's website.	Comply	The Supervisory Board has established four permanent committees; the Audit Committee, the Nomination Committee, the Remuneration Committee and the Health, Safety and Sustainability Committee. For all committees charters have been established. See also clause 3.6 SBR.

			The rules for the Supervisory Board and the charters for the committees are available on the Company's website: www.bam.com/en/about-bam/corporate-governance/articles-of-association-rules-and-codes .
2.3.2	Establishment of committees
	If the Supervisory Board consists of more than four members, it should appoint from among its members an audit committee, a remuneration committee and a selection and appointment committee. Without prejudice to the collegiate responsibility of the Supervisory Board, the duty of these committees is to prepare the decision-making of the Supervisory Board. If the Supervisory Board decides not to establish an audit committee, a remuneration committee or a selection and appointment committee, the best practice provisions applicable to such committee(s) should apply to the entire Supervisory Board.	Comply	At BAM, the Supervisory Board has established four committees; the Audit Committee, the Nomination Committee (= selection and appointment committee), the Remuneration Committee and the Health, Safety and Sustainability Committee. See clause 3.6 SBR and the charters of these committees (schedules 6, 7, 8 and 9 to the SBR).
2.3.3	Committees' terms of reference
	The Supervisory Board should draw up terms of reference for the audit committee, the remuneration committee and the selection and appointment committee. The terms of reference should indicate the role and responsibility of the committee concerned, its composition and the manner in which it discharges its duties. The terms of reference should be posted on the company's website.	Comply	See clause 3.6 SBR and the charters of these committees (schedules 6, 7, 8 and 9 to the SBR). The charters for the committees are schedules to the SBR and available on the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/about-bam/corporate-governance/articles-of-association-rules-and-codes .
2.3.4	Composition of the committees
	The audit committee or the remuneration committee should not be chaired by the chairman of the Supervisory Board or by a former member of the Management Board of the company. More than half of the members of the committees should be independent within the meaning of best practice provision 2.1.8.	Comply	Neither the Audit Committee nor the Remuneration Committee are chaired by the chairman of the Supervisory Board nor a former member of the Executive Board. More than half of the members of the committees must be independent as described in best practice provision 2.1.8. See also clauses 1.2.2 and 1.3.2 ACC and 1.2.3 and 1.3.2 RCC.
2.3.5	Committee reports
	The Supervisory Board should receive from each of the committees a report of their deliberations and findings. In the report of the Supervisory Board it should comment on how the duties of the committees were carried out in the financial year. In this report, the composition of the committees, the number of committee	Comply	The obligation to report to the Supervisory Board is described in clauses 3.5.3 SBR, 3.1 ACC, 3.1 RCC, 3.1 NCC and 3.1 HSSC. 	meetings and the main items discussed at the meetings should be mentioned.		four committees, see the 'Report of the Supervisory Board' paragraph in the AR.
2.3.6	Chairman of the Supervisory Board
	The chairman of the Supervisory Board should in any case ensure that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. the Supervisory Board has proper contact with the Management Board, the employee participation body (if any) and the general meeting; ii. the Supervisory Board elects a vice-chairman; iii. there is sufficient time for deliberation and decision-making by the Supervisory Board; iv. the Supervisory Board members receive all information that is necessary for the proper performance of their duties in a timely fashion; v. the Supervisory Board and its committees function properly; vi. the functioning of individual Management Board members and Supervisory Board members is assessed at least annually; vii. the Supervisory Board members and Management Board members follow their induction programme; viii. the Supervisory Board members and Management Board members follow their education or training programme; ix. the Management Board performs activities in respect of culture; x. the Supervisory Board recognises signs from the enterprise affiliated with the company and ensures that any (suspicion of) material misconduct and irregularities are reported to the Supervisory Board without delay; xi. the general meeting proceeds in an orderly and efficient manner; xii. effective communication with shareholders is assured; and xiii. the Supervisory Board is involved closely, and at an early stage, in any merger or takeover processes. The chairman of the Supervisory Board should consult regularly with the chairman of the Management Board.	Comply	See clause 1.1.1 schedule 5 to the SBR. See clause 1.1.3 schedule 5 to the SBR. The chairman of the Supervisory Board has frequent contact with the chairman of the Executive Board.
2.3.7	Vice-chairman of the Supervisory Board
	The vice-chairman of the Supervisory Board should deputise for the chairman when the occasion arises.	Comply	See clause 1.2.1 schedule 5 to the SBR.

2.3.8	Delegated Supervisory Board member
	A delegated Supervisory Board member is a Supervisory Board member who has a special task. The delegation may not extend beyond the responsibilities of the Supervisory Board itself and may not include the management of the company. Its purpose is more intensive supervision and advice and more regular consultation with the Management Board. The delegation should be of a temporary nature only. The delegation may not detract from the duties and powers of the Supervisory Board. The delegated Supervisory Board member continues to be a member of the Supervisory Board and should report regularly on the execution of his special duty to the plenary Supervisory Board.	Comply	Currently not applicable. In case a delegated Supervisory Board member will be appointed, the Company will comply with this best practice provision.
2.3.9	Temporary Management Board function of a Supervisory Board member
	A Supervisory Board member who temporarily takes on the management of the company, where the Management Board members are absent or unable to fulfil their duties, should resign from the Supervisory Board.	Comply	Currently not applicable. In case a Supervisory Board member takes on the management of the Company, the Company will comply with this best practice provision.
2.3.10	Company secretary
	The Supervisory Board should be supported by the company secretary. The secretary: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> should ensure that the proper procedures are followed and that the statutory obligations and obligations under the articles of association are complied with; should facilitate the provision of information of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board; and should support the chairman of the Supervisory Board in the organisation of the affairs of the Supervisory Board, including the provision of information, meeting agendas, evaluations and training programmes. The company secretary should, either on the motion of the Supervisory Board or otherwise, be appointed and dismissed by the Management Board, after the approval of the Supervisory Board has been obtained. If the secretary also undertakes work for the Management Board and notes that the interests of the Management Board and the supervisory board diverge, as a result of which it is unclear which interests the secretary should represent, the secretary should report this to the chairman of the Supervisory Board.	Comply	See clause 3.7 SBR. See clause 3.8 SBR and clause 3.6 EBECR. See clause 3.5.2 EBECR.

2.3.11	Report of the Supervisory Board
	The annual statements of the company include a report by the Supervisory Board. In this report, the Supervisory Board should render account of the supervision conducted in the past financial year, reporting in any event on the items referred to in best practice provisions 1.1.3, 2.1.2, 2.1.10, 2.2.8, 2.3.5 and 2.4.4 and, if applicable, the items referred to in best practice provisions 1.3.6 and 2.2.2.	Comply	See the 'Report of the Supervisory Board' paragraph in the AR.
2.4	DECISION-MAKING AND FUNCTIONING
	Principle: The Management Board and the Supervisory Board should ensure that decisions are made in a balanced and effective manner whilst taking account of the interests of stakeholders. The Management Board should ensure that information is provided in a timely and sound manner. The Management Board and the Supervisory Board should keep their knowledge and skills up to date and spend sufficient time on their duties and responsibilities. They should ensure that, in performing their duties, they have the information that is required for effective decision-making.	Comply	See clause 3.2.4 EBECR and clause 1.3 schedule 4 SBR for the responsibility to take account of the interests of stakeholders. See clauses 3.23.1 and 3.23.2 EBECR, 3.26.1 and 3.26.2 SBR as well as 1.1.1.d schedule 5 SBR for the provision of information. See clause 1.1.1.h schedule 5 SBR for the responsibility of the chairman of the Supervisory Board to supervise training and/or education programs.
2.4.1	Stimulating openness and accountability
	The Management Board and the Supervisory Board are each responsible for stimulating openness and accountability within the organ of which they form part, and between the different organs within the company.	Comply	See clause 3.23 EBECR and clause 3.26 SBR. The Supervisory Board, and its individual members, have their own responsibility for obtaining all information from the Executive Board and the Executive Committee that the Supervisory Board requires for the due performance of its duties. The Executive Board shall timely and in a sound manner provide the Supervisory Board with all relevant information on all facts and developments concerning the Company which the Supervisory Board may need for functioning as required and for properly carrying out its duties.
2.4.2	Other positions
	Management Board members and Supervisory Board members should report any other positions they may have to the Supervisory Board in advance and, at	Comply	See clause 3.27 EBECR and clause 3.33 SBR. Annually the other positions of the members of the Executive Board least annually, the other positions should be discussed at the Supervisory Board meeting. The acceptance of membership of a Supervisory Board by a Management Board member requires the approval of the Supervisory Board.		and Supervisory Board are jointly evaluated in a Supervisory Board meeting. The Nomination Committee advises the Supervisory Board in this respect (1.1.1.i NCC). This obligation will also apply to members of the Executive Committee.

2.4.3	Point of contact for the functioning of Supervisory Board and Management Board members
	The chairman of the Supervisory Board should act on behalf of the Supervisory Board as the main contact for the Management Board, Supervisory Board members and shareholders regarding the functioning of Management Board members and Supervisory Board members. The vice-chairman should act as contact for individual Supervisory Board members and Management Board members regarding the functioning of the chairman.	Comply	See clauses 3.32.1 SBR, 1.1.2 and 1.2.2 schedule 5 SBR.
2.4.4	Attendance at Supervisory Board meetings
	Supervisory Board members should attend Supervisory Board meetings and the meetings of the committees of which they are a part. If Supervisory Board members are frequently absent from these meetings, they should be held to account on this. The report of the Supervisory Board should state the absenteeism rate from Supervisory Board and committee meetings of each Supervisory Board member.	Comply	See the 'Report of the Supervisory Board' paragraph in the AR.
2.4.5	Induction program for Supervisory Board members
	All Supervisory Board members should follow an induction program geared to their role. The induction program should in any event cover general financial, social and legal affairs, financial reporting by the company, any specific aspects that are unique to the relevant company and its business activities, the company culture and the relationship with the employee participation body (if any), and the responsibilities of a Supervisory Board member.	Comply	The responsibility of the chairman of the Supervisory Board for assuring that induction programs are available and followed is described in clause 1.1.1.g schedule 5 SBR. At BAM there is a standard induction program that is adjusted in individual cases, depending on the background and future role of the new Supervisory Board member. It always includes (individual) meetings with all members of the Executive Board, Supervisory Board and a number of business and staff executives as well as at least two visits to operating companies, including project visits.

2.4.6	Development
	The Management Board and the Supervisory Board should each conduct an annual review for their own organ to identify any aspects with regard to which the Supervisory Board members and Management Board members require training or education.	Comply	See clauses 3.11.4 and 1.5.f schedule 4 SBR and 3.26.3 EBECR.
2.4.7	Information safeguards
	The Management Board should ensure that internal procedures are established and maintained which safeguard that all relevant information is known to the Management Board and the Supervisory Board in a timely fashion. The Supervisory Board should supervise the establishment and implementation of these procedures.	Comply	See clauses 3.2.3 and 3.23.1 EBECR, clauses 3.26.1 and 3.26.2 SBR and article 18.2 AoA. The Supervisory Board is informed immediately about material matters concerning the Company (e.g. fatal accidents). The Company Secretary ensures that the members of the Supervisory Board receive their meeting documents well in advance of the respective meeting.
2.4.8	Supervisory Board members' responsibility for obtaining information
	The Supervisory Board and each individual Supervisory Board member have their own responsibility for obtaining the information from the Management Board, the internal audit function, the external auditor and the employee participation body (if any) that the Supervisory Board needs in order to be able to carry out its duties as a supervisory organ properly.	Comply	See clause 3.5.2 and clause 3.26.1 SBR.
2.4.9	Obtaining information from officers and external parties
	If the Supervisory Board considers it necessary, it may obtain information from officers and external advisers of the company. The company should provide the necessary means to this end. The Supervisory Board may require that certain officers and external advisers attend its meetings.	Comply	Members of the Supervisory Board meet regularly and one-on-one with senior officers of the Company in order to obtain information and receive their input. See clause 3.26.1 SBR.
2.5	CULTURE
	Principle: The Management Board is responsible for creating a culture aimed at sustainable long-term value creation for the company and its affiliated enterprise.	Comply	See clauses 1.2 and 1.5.m schedule 4 SBR and 1.1.1.j schedule 5 SBR. Culture, values and effectiveness of the Company's code of conduct are annually discussed in the Supervisory Board.
2.5.1	Management Board's responsibility for culture
	The Management Board should adopt values for the company and its affiliated enterprise that contribute to a culture focused on sustainable long-term value creation, and	Comply	Within the Company clear values have been established. These values are reviewed and updated in case prudent,

	discuss these with the Supervisory Board. The Management Board is responsible for the incorporation and maintenance of the values within the company and its affiliated enterprise. Attention must be paid to the following, among other things: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. the strategy and the business model; ii. the environment in which the enterprise operates; and iii. the existing culture within the enterprise, and whether it is desirable to implement any changes in this; and iv. the social safety within the enterprise and the ability to discuss and report actual or suspected misconduct or irregularities. 		most recently in 2022 in order to align the values with the strategic agenda. The values are integrated in the code of conduct of the Company.
2.5.2	Code of conduct
	The Management Board should draw up a code of conduct and monitor its effectiveness and compliance with this code, both on the part of itself and of the employees of the company. The Management Board should inform the Supervisory Board of its findings and observations relating to the effectiveness of, and compliance with, the code. The code of conduct will be published on the company's website.	Comply	The Company has a code of conduct, the most recent version of which was adopted in 2023. Culture, values and effectiveness of the code of conduct are annually discussed in the Supervisory Board. The code of conduct is available at the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/about-bam/code-of-conduct
2.5.3	Employee participation
	If the company has established an employee participation body, the following should also be discussed in the consultations between the Management Board, the Supervisory Board and such employee participation body: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. the conduct and culture in the company and its affiliated enterprise; ii. the corporate values adopted by the Management Board on the basis of best practice provision 2.5.1, and iii. the company's D&I policy. 	Comply	See clauses 3.25.2 EBECR and 3.28.1 SBR. Twice per year (a delegation of) the Executive Board and twice a year (a delegation of) the Supervisory Board meet with the works council in order to discuss a.o. the conduct and culture in the Company.
2.5.4	Reporting on culture
	In the management report, the Management Board should provide explanatory notes on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. the culture within the company, and whether it is desirable to implement any changes in this; ii. how the culture, the underlying corporate values and conduct promoted within the enterprise contribute to sustainable long-term value creation and, if it is considered desirable to amend these, which initiatives are taken to further increase this contribution; and 	Comply	See the 'Social Performance' paragraph in the AR.

	iii. the effectiveness of, and compliance with, the code of conduct.
2.6	MISCONDUCT AND IRREGULARITIES
	Principle: The Management Board and the Supervisory Board should be alert to indications of actual or suspected misconduct or irregularities. The Management Board should establish a procedure for reporting actual or suspicion of misconduct or irregularities, and take appropriate follow-up action on the basis of these reports. The Supervisory Board monitors the Management Board in this regard.	Comply	See clauses 3.9.5.m and 3.26.8 SBR and 1.1.1k schedule 5 SBR. See also clause 3.2.3 EBECR. The Supervisory Board (delegated to the Audit Committee) receives a compliance report twice per year which subsequently is reviewed together with representatives of the Executive Board.
2.6.1	Procedure for reporting actual or suspicion of misconduct or irregularities
	The Management Board should establish a procedure for reporting actual or suspected irregularities within the company and its affiliated enterprise. The procedure will be published on the company's homepage. The Management Board should ensure that employees have the opportunity to file a report without jeopardising their legal position.	Comply	The responsibility of the Executive Board in this respect is described in clause 3.2.3 EBECR and supervised by the Supervisory Board in accordance with clause 3.26.8 SBR. At BAM there is procedure for reporting actual or suspected misconduct since 2003. The most recent version of the procedure (Speak Up Reporting Procedure), which was adopted in April 2023, is available at the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/sites/bamc/files/2025-06/bam-speak-up-procedure.pdf .
2.6.2	Informing the chairman of the Supervisory Board
	The Management Board should inform the chairman of the Supervisory Board without delay of any signs of actual or suspected material misconduct or irregularities within the company and its affiliated enterprise. If the actual or suspected misconduct or irregularity pertains to the functioning of a Management Board member, employees can report this directly to the chairman of the Supervisory Board.	Comply	The responsibility of the Executive Board in this respect is described in clauses 3.2.3 and 3.2.6 EBECR and supervised by the Supervisory Board in accordance with clause 3.26.8 SBR. Also see the Speak Up Reporting Procedure for reporting actual or suspected misconduct (for a link see best practice provision 2.6.1). Reports to the chairman of the Supervisory Board are being made via the Compliance Officer of the Company, who acts independently from the Executive Board in this respect.

2.6.3	Notification by the external auditor
	The external auditor should inform the chairman of the audit committee without delay if, during the performance of his duties, he discovers or suspect an instance of misconduct or irregularity. If the actual or suspected misconduct or irregularity pertains to the functioning of a Management Board member, the external auditor should report this directly to the chairman of the Supervisory Board.	Comply	This responsibility lies with the external auditor and has been addressed in the engagement letter. However, the Company embraces and encourages the external auditor to adhere to this best practice provision.
2.6.4	Notification by the internal auditor
	The internal audit function should inform the Management Board and the chairman of the audit committee without delay if, during the performance of his duties, he discovers or suspects an instance of material misconduct or irregularity. If the actual or suspected material misconduct or irregularity pertains to the functioning of one or more Management Board members, the internal audit function should report this to the chairman of the Supervisory Board.	Comply	This responsibility lies with the internal audit function and notifications can either be included in the reports of findings as referred to in best practice provision 1.3.5, or via the Speak Up Reporting Procedure for reporting actual or suspected misconduct (for a link see best practice provision 2.6.1). Reports to the chairman of the Supervisory Board are being made via the Compliance Officer of the Company, who acts independently from the Executive Board in this respect.
2.6.5	Oversight by the Supervisory Board
	The Supervisory Board monitors the operation of the procedure for reporting actual or suspected misconduct or irregularities, appropriate and independent investigations into signs of misconduct or irregularities, and, if an instance of misconduct or irregularity has been discovered, an adequate follow-up of any recommendations for remedial actions. In order to safeguard the independence of the investigation in cases where the Management Board itself is involved, the Supervisory Board should have the option of initiating its own investigation into any irregularities that have been discovered and to coordinate this investigation.	Comply	See the Speak Up Reporting Procedure for reporting actual or suspected misconduct (for a link see best practice provision 2.6.1). The Audit Committee receives a compliance report twice per year which subsequently is reviewed together with representatives of the Executive Board.
2.7	PREVENTING CONFLICTS OF INTEREST
	Principle: Any form of conflict of interest between the company and the members of its Management Board or Supervisory Board should be prevented. To avoid conflicts of interest, adequate measures should be taken. The Supervisory Board is responsible for the decision-making on dealing with conflicts of interest regarding Management Board members, Supervisory Board members and majority shareholders in relation to the company.	Comply	See clauses 3.16 through 3.21 EBECR and clauses 3.18 through 3.23 SBR.

2.7.1	Preventing conflicts of interest
	Management Board members and Supervisory Board members are alert to conflicts of interest and should in any case refrain from the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. competing with the company; ii. demanding or accepting substantial gifts from the company for themselves or their spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child or relative by blood or marriage up to the second degree; iii. providing unjustified advantages to third parties at the company's expense; iv. taking advantage of business opportunities to which the company is entitled for themselves or for their spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child or relative by blood or marriage up to the second degree. 	Comply	See clause 3.16.2 EBECR and clause 3.18.2 SBR.
2.7.2	Terms of reference		The terms of reference of the Supervisory Board should contain rules on dealing with conflicts of interest, including conflicting interests between Management Board members and Supervisory Board members on the one hand and the company on the other. The terms of reference should also stipulate which transactions require the approval of the Supervisory Board. The company should draw up regulations governing ownership of, and transactions in, securities by management or Supervisory Board members, other than securities issued, by the company. The Company has established regulations for members of the Executive Board and Supervisory Board with regard to the ownership and transactions in other securities, which regulations are included in the Insider Dealing Policy of BAM, available via the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/about-bam/corporate-governance/articles-of-association-rules-and-codes.
2.7.3	Reporting		A conflict of interest may exist if the company intends to enter into a transaction with a legal entity: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. in which a member of the Management Board or the Supervisory Board personally has a material financial interest; or ii. which has a member of the Management Board or the Supervisory Board who is related under family law to a member of the Management Board or the Supervisory Board of the company. A Management Board member should report any potential conflict of interest in a transaction that is of material significance to the company and/or to such

	Management Board member to the chairman of the Supervisory Board and to the other members of the Management Board without delay. The Management Board member should provide all relevant information in that regard, including the information relevant to the situation concerning his spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child and relatives by blood or marriage up to the second degree. A Supervisory Board member should report any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest in a transaction that is of material significance to the company and/or to such Supervisory Board member to the chairman of the Supervisory Board without delay and should provide all relevant information in that regard, including the relevant information pertaining to his spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child and relatives by blood or marriage up to the second degree. If the chairman of the Supervisory Board has a conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest, he should report this to the vice-chairman of the Supervisory Board without delay. The Supervisory Board should decide, outside the presence of the Management Board member or Supervisory Board member concerned, whether there is a conflict of interest.		See clause 3.21 SBR. See clause 3.20 EBECR and clause 3.22 SBR.
2.7.4	Accountability regarding transactions: Management Board and Supervisory Board members
	All transactions in which there are conflicts of interest with Management Board members or Supervisory Board members should be agreed on terms that are customary in the market. Decisions to enter into transactions in which there are conflicts of interest with Management Board members or Supervisory Board members that are of material significance to the company and/or to the relevant Management Board members or supervisory board members should require the approval of the Supervisory Board. Such transactions should be published in the management report, together with a statement of the conflict of interest and a declaration that best practice provisions 2.7.3 and 2.7.4 have been complied with.	Comply	See clause 3.21 EBECR and clauses 3.23 and 1.5.I schedule 4 SBR.
2.7.5	Accountability regarding transactions: majority shareholders		All transactions between the company and legal or natural persons who hold at least ten percent of the shares in the company should be agreed on terms that are customary in the market. Decisions to enter into transactions with such persons that are of material significance to the company and/or to such persons should require the approval of the Supervisory Board. Such transactions should be published in the management report, together with a declaration that best practice provision 2.7.5 has been complied with.

2.7.6	Personal loans
	The company should not grant its Management Board members and Supervisory Board members any personal loans, guarantees or the like unless in the normal course of business and on terms applicable to the personnel as a whole, and after approval of the Supervisory Board. Loans should not be forgiven.	Comply	See clause 3.22 EBR and clause 3.24 SBR.
2.8	TAKEOVER SITUATIONS
	Principle: In the event of a takeover bid for the company's shares or for the depositary receipts for the company's shares, in the event of a private bid for a business unit or a participating interest, where the value of the bid exceeds the threshold referred to in Section 2:107a(1)(c) of the Dutch Civil Code, and/or in the event of other substantial changes in the structure of the organisation, both the Management Board and the Supervisory Board should ensure that the stakeholder interests concerned are carefully weighed and any conflict of interest for Supervisory Board members or Management Board members is avoided. The Management Board and the Supervisory Board should be guided in their actions by the interests of the company and its affiliated enterprise.	Comply	See clauses 3.2.3 and 3.2.6 EBECR and clauses 3.27.6 and 3.27.8 SBR
2.8.1	Supervisory Board involvement
	When a takeover bid for the company's shares or for the depositary receipts for the company's shares is being prepared, in the event of a private bid for a business unit or a participating interest, where the value of the bid exceeds the threshold referred to in Section 2:107a(1)(c) of the Dutch Civil Code, and/or in the event of other substantial changes in the structure of the organisation, the Management Board should ensure that the Supervisory Board is involved in the takeover process and/or the change in the structure closely and in a timely fashion.	Comply	See clauses 3.2.3 and 3.2.6 EBECR and clauses 3.27.8 and 3.27.9 SBR and 1.1.1.o schedule 5 SBR.

2.8.2	Informing the Supervisory Board about request for inspection by competing bidder
	If a takeover bid has been announced for the shares, or depositary receipts for shares, in the company, and the Management Board receives a request from a competing bidder to inspect the company's records, the Management Board should discuss this request with the Supervisory Board without delay.	Comply	See clauses 3.2.3 and 3.2.6 EBECR and clause 3.27.8 SBR.
2.8.3	Management Board's position on a private bid
	If a private bid for a business unit or a participating interest has been made public, where the value of the bid exceeds the threshold referred to in Section 2:107a(1)(c) of the Dutch Civil Code, the Management Board of the company should as soon as possible make public its position on the bid and the reasons for this position.	Comply	See clause 3.25.5 EBECR and clause 3.27.6 SBR. The role of the Supervisory Board in ensuring that the executive board complies to this best practice provision, is described in clause 3.27.8. SBR.
3	REMUNERATION
3.1	REMUNERATION POLICY – MANAGEMENT BOARD
	Principle: The remuneration policy applicable to Management Board members should be clear and understandable, should focus on sustainable long-term value creation for the company and its affiliated enterprise, and take into account the internal pay ratios within the enterprise. The remuneration policy should not encourage Management Board members to act in their own interest, nor to take risks that are not in keeping with the strategy formulated and the risk appetite that has been established. The Supervisory Board is responsible for formulating the remuneration policy and its implementation.	Comply	See clause 3.4.4 EBECR and clauses 1.5.c schedule 4 and 1.1.2.a schedule 7 SBR.
3.1.1	Remuneration policy proposal
	The remuneration committee should submit a clear and understandable proposal to the Supervisory Board concerning the remuneration policy to be pursued with regard to the Management Board. The Supervisory Board should present the policy to the general meeting for adoption.	Comply	See clause 1.1.1 RCC for the role of the Remuneration Committee and clause 1.5.c schedule 4 SBR for the responsibility of the Supervisory Board. The current remuneration policy for the Executive Board was approved by the AGM on 10 April 2024. The current remuneration policy for the Executive Board can be found in the 'Remuneration report' paragraph in the AR.

3.1.2	Remuneration policy
	The following aspects should in any event be taken into consideration when formulating the remuneration policy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. the objectives for the strategy for the implementation of sustainable long-term value creation within the meaning of best practice provision 1.1.1; ii. the scenario analyses carried out in advance; iii. the pay ratios within the company and its affiliated enterprise; iv. the development of the market price of the shares; v. an appropriate ratio between the variable and fixed remuneration components. The variable remuneration component is linked to measurable performance criteria determined in advance, which are predominantly long-term in character; vi. if shares are being awarded, the terms and conditions governing this. Shares should be held for at least five years after they are awarded; and vii. if share options are being awarded, the terms and conditions governing this and the terms and conditions subject to which the share options can be exercised. Share options cannot be exercised during the first three years after they are awarded. 	Comply	The aspects described under sub-clauses (i) up to and including (v) are described in clause 1.1.2.a RCC. The Company also complies with sub-clause (vi) and (vii) which are dealt with in the rules for the Long Term Incentive Plan the Company operates. All information about the current remuneration policy can be found in the 'Remuneration report' paragraph in the AR.
3.1.3	Remuneration – executive committee
	If the Management Board works with an Executive Committee, the Management Board should inform the Supervisory Board about the remuneration of the members of the Executive Committee who are not Management Board members. The Management Board should discuss this remuneration with the Supervisory Board annually.	Comply	See clause 3.4.4 EBECR.
3.2	DETERMINATION OF MANAGEMENT BOARD REMUNERATION
	Principle: The Supervisory Board should determine the remuneration of the individual members of the Management Board, within the limits of the remuneration policy adopted by the general meeting. The remuneration committee should prepare the Supervisory Board's decision-making regarding the determination of remuneration. The inadequate performance of duties should not be rewarded.	Comply	See clause 1.5.c schedule 4 SBR and clause 1.1.2.b RCC.

3.2.1	Remuneration committee's proposal
	The remuneration committee should submit a proposal to the Supervisory Board concerning the remuneration of individual members of the Management Board. The proposal is drawn up in accordance with the remuneration policy that has been established and will, in any event, cover the remuneration structure, the amount of the fixed and variable remuneration components, the performance criteria used, the scenario analyses that are carried out and the pay ratios within the company and its affiliated enterprise.	Comply	See clause 1.1.3 RCC. The Remuneration Committee annually prepares a proposal which subsequently is provided to the Supervisory Board for discussion and approval.
3.2.2	Management Board members' views on their own remuneration
	When drafting the proposal for the remuneration of Management Board members, the remuneration committee should take note of individual Management Board members' views with regard to the amount and structure of their own remuneration. The remuneration committee should ask the members of the Management Board to pay attention to the aspects referred to in best practice provision 3.1.2.	Comply	See clause 1.1.5 RCC.
3.2.3	Severance payments
	The remuneration in the event of dismissal should not exceed one year's salary (the 'fixed' remuneration component). Severance pay will not be awarded if the agreement is terminated early at the initiative of the Management Board member, or in the event of seriously culpable or negligent behavior on the part of the Management Board member.	Comply	In the management service agreements of the individual members of the Executive Board, arrangements have been included which maximise the remuneration in case of dismissal is capped at one year's salary. See for more information the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/about-bam/management/executive-board .
3.3	REMUNERATION – SUPERVISORY BOARD
	Principle: The Supervisory Board should submit a clear and understandable proposal for its own appropriate remuneration to the general meeting. The remuneration of Supervisory Board members should promote an adequate performance of their role and should not be dependent on the results of the company.	Comply	See clause 1.5.e schedule 4 SBR.
3.3.1	Time spent and responsibility
	The remuneration of the Supervisory Board members should reflect the time spent and the responsibilities of their role.	Comply	The current remuneration policy for the Supervisory Board was approved by the AGM on 10 April 2024. The current remuneration policy for the Supervisory Board can be found in the 'Remuneration report' paragraph in the AR.

3.3.2	Remuneration of Supervisory Board members
	Supervisory Board members may not be awarded remuneration in the form of shares and/or rights to shares.	Comply	The members of the Supervisory Board do not receive shares or rights to shares as part of their remuneration. For more information on their remuneration see the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/about-bam/management/supervisory-board .
3.3.3	Share ownership
	Shares held by a Supervisory Board member in the company on whose Supervisory Board they serve should be long-term investments.	Comply	Information about shares held by members of the Supervisory Board is available on the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/about-bam/management/supervisory-board . Any shareholding by a member of the Supervisory Board in the Company's capital is for long term investment.
3.4	ACCOUNTABILITY FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF REMUNERATION POLICY
	Principle: In the remuneration report, the supervisory board should render account of the implementation of the remuneration policy in a transparent manner. The report should be posted on the company's website.	Comply	See the 'Remuneration report' paragraph in the AR.
3.4.1	Remuneration report
	The remuneration committee should prepare the remuneration report. This report should in any event describe, in a transparent manner, in addition to the matters required by law: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> how the remuneration policy has been implemented in the past financial year; how the implementation of the remuneration policy contributes to sustainable long-term value creation; that scenario analyses have been taken into consideration; the pay ratios within the company and its affiliated enterprise and, if applicable, any changes in these ratios compared to at least five previous financial years; 	Comply	See clauses 1.1.2.f and 1.1.4 schedule 7 SBR. More information on these matters can be found in the 'Remuneration report' paragraph in the AR.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> v. in the event that a Management Board member receives variable remuneration, how this remuneration contributes to sustainable long-term value creation, the measurable performance criteria determined in advance upon which the variable remuneration depends, and the relationship between the remuneration and performance; and vi. in the event that a current or former Management Board member receives a severance payment, the reason for this payment.
3.4.2	Agreement of Management Board member
	The main elements of the agreement of a Management Board member with the company should be published on the company's website in a transparent overview after the agreement has been concluded, and in any event no later than the date of the notice calling the general meeting where the appointment of the Management Board member will be proposed.	Comply	The main elements of the management service agreements of the individual members of the Executive Board are available at the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/about-bam/management/executive-board .
4	THE GENERAL MEETING
4.1	THE GENERAL MEETING
4.1.1	Supervisory Board supervision
	The Supervisory Board's supervision of the Management Board should include the supervision of relations with shareholders.	Comply	See clause 3.2.3 EBECR, clause 3.27.2 SBR and clause 1.1.1.m schedule 5 SBR. The Supervisory Board periodically receives updates from the Investor Relations Manager.
4.1.2	Proper conduct of business at meetings
	The chairman of the general meeting is responsible for ensuring the proper conduct of business at meetings in order to promote a meaningful discussion at the meeting.	Comply	See clauses 3.27.4, 3.27.10 and 1.1.1.l schedule 5 SBR.
4.1.3	Agenda
	The agenda of the general meeting should list which items are up for discussion and which items are to be voted on. The following items should be dealt with as separate agenda items: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. material changes to the articles of association; 	Comply	Ad (i): See article 32 AoA and clause 3.27.4.d SBR; Ad (ii): See clause 3.27.4.d SBR; Ad (iii): See article 24.2.e AoA; Ad (iv): See article 24.2.f AoA; Ad (v): See article 24.2.b AoA;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ii. proposals relating to the appointment of Management Board and Supervisory Board members; iii. the policy of the company on additions to reserves and on dividends (the level and purpose of the addition to reserves, the amount of the dividend and the type of dividend); iv. any proposal to pay out dividend; v. resolutions to approve the management conducted by the Management Board (discharge of Management Board members from liability); vi. resolutions to approve the supervision exercised by the Supervisory Board (discharge of Supervisory Board members from liability); vii. each substantial change in the corporate governance structure of the company and in the compliance with this Code; and viii. the appointment of the external auditor. 		Ad (vi): See article 24.2.c AoA; Ad (vii): See clause 3.27.3. SBR; Ad (viii): See clause 1.5.h schedule 5 SBR.
4.1.4	Proposal for approval or authorisation
	A proposal for approval or authorisation by the general meeting should be explained in writing. In its explanation the Management Board should deal with all facts and circumstances relevant to the approval or authorisation to be granted. The notes to the agenda should be posted on the company's website.	Comply	This is standard practice within the Company. For every shareholder meeting an agenda and explanatory notes are prepared, all of which can be found on the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/about-bam/corporate-governance/annual-general-meeting/agm-8-may-2025 .
4.1.5	Shareholder's explanation when exercising the right to put items on the agenda
	If a shareholder has arranged for an item to be put on the agenda, he should explain this at the meeting and, if necessary, answer questions about it.	N.A.	This best practice provision is addressed to the Company's shareholders.
4.1.6	Placing of items on the agenda by shareholders
	A shareholder should only exercise the right to put items on the agenda after they have consulted with the Management Board on this. If one or more shareholders intend to request that an item be put on the agenda that may result in a change in the company's strategy, for example as a result of the dismissal of one or several Management Board or Supervisory Board members, the Management Board should be given the opportunity to stipulate a reasonable period in which to respond (the response time). The opportunity to stipulate the response time should also apply to an intention as referred to above for judicial leave to call a general meeting pursuant to Section 2:110 of the Dutch Civil Code. The relevant shareholder should respect the	N.A.	This best practice provision is addressed to the Company's shareholders.

	response time stipulated by the Management Board, within the meaning of best practice provision 4.1.7.
4.1.7	Stipulation of the response time
	If the Management Board stipulates a response time, this should be a reasonable period that does not exceed 180 days from the moment the Management Board is informed by one or more shareholders of their intention to put an item on the agenda to the day of the general meeting at which the item is to be dealt with. The Management Board should use the response time for further deliberation and constructive consultation, in any event with the relevant shareholder(s), and should explore the alternatives. At the end of the response time, the Management Board should report on this consultation and the exploration to the general meeting. This should be monitored by the Supervisory Board. The response time may be stipulated only once for any given general meeting and should not apply to an item in respect of which the response time or a statutory reflection period as referred to in article 2:114b of the Dutch Civil Code has already been stipulated, or to meetings where a shareholder holds at least three-quarters of the issued capital as a consequence of a successful public bid.	Comply	See clause 3.27.7 SBR.
4.1.8	Attendance of members nominated for the Management Board or Supervisory Board
	Management Board and Supervisory Board members nominated for appointment should attend the general meeting at which votes will be cast on their nomination.	Comply	See clauses 3.24.1 and 3.24.7 EBECR and clause 3.27.1. SBR for the general obligation to attend the general meeting.
4.1.9	External auditor's attendance
	The external auditor may be questioned by the general meeting in relation to his report on the fairness of the financial statements. The external auditor should attend and be entitled to address the meeting for this purpose.	Comply	See clauses 3.27.4 and 1.5.h schedule 4 SBR. It has also been addressed in the engagement letter as agreed upon between the Company and the external auditor.
4.1.10	General meeting's report
	The report of the general meeting should be made available on request to the shareholders no later than three months after the end of the meeting, after which shareholders should have the opportunity to react to the report in the following three months. The report should then be adopted in the manner provided for in the articles of association.	Comply	See clause 3.27.5. SBR and article 27.3 AoA. The procedure for adopting the report of the general meeting is described in article 27.2 AoA.

4.2	PROVISION OF INFORMATION
	Principle: The Management Board and the Supervisory Board should ensure that the general meeting is adequately provided with information.	Comply	See clause 3.27.2. SBR and clause 3.24.2 EBECR.
4.2.1	Substantiation of invocation of overriding interest
	If the Management Board and the Supervisory Board do not provide the general meeting with all information desired with the invocation of an overriding interest on the part of the company, they must give reasons for this.	Comply	See clause 3.27.2. SBR and clause 3.24.2 EBECR.
4.2.2	Policy on bilateral contacts with shareholders
	The company should formulate an outline policy on bilateral contacts with the shareholders and should post this policy on its website. Shareholders and the company should be prepared to enter into a dialogue, where appropriate and at their own discretion. The company is expected to facilitate the dialogue unless, in the opinion of the Management Board, this is not in the interests of the company and its affiliated enterprise. Shareholders are expected to be prepared to enter into a constructive dialogue with the company. If a shareholder enters into a dialogue with the company outside the context of a general meeting, the shareholder shall disclose his full share position (long and short and through derivatives) at the request of the company.	Comply	See clause 3.27.4.f SBR and the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/investor-relations/contacts-with-shareholders .
4.2.3	Meetings and presentations
	Analyst meetings, analyst presentations, presentations to institutional or other investors and press conferences should be announced in advance on the company's website and by means of press releases. Analysts' meetings and presentations to investors should not take place shortly before the publication of the regular financial information. All shareholders should be able to follow these meetings and presentations in real time, by means of webcasting, telephone or otherwise. After the meetings, the presentations should be posted on the company's website.	Comply	See the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/investor-relations/contacts-with-shareholders and https://www.bam.com/en/investor-relations/publications-and-webcasts .
4.2.4	Posting information in a separate section of the website
	The company should post and update information which is relevant to the shareholders and which it is required to publish or submit pursuant to the	Comply	See the different sections on the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/nl/home .

	provisions of company law and securities law applicable to it in a separate section of the company's website.
4.2.5	Management Board contacts with press and analysts
	The contacts between the Management Board on the one hand and the press and financial analysts on the other should be handled and structured carefully and with due observance of the applicable laws and regulations. The company should not do anything that might compromise the independence of analysts in relation to the company and vice versa.	Comply	The policy that described (a.o.) the contacts with the press and financial analysts is available at the Company's website: https://www.bam.com/en/investor-relations/contacts-with-shareholders .
4.2.6	Outline of anti-takeover measures
	The Management Board should outline all existing or potential anti-takeover measures in the management report and should also indicate in what circumstances and by whom these measures may likely be used.	Comply	A description of the anti-takeover measures is available in the 'Anti-takeover measures' paragraph in the AR.
4.3	CASTING VOTES
	Principle: Participation of as many shareholders as possible in the general meeting's decision-making is in the interest of the company's checks and balances. The company should, in so far as possible, give shareholders the opportunity to vote by proxy and to communicate with all other shareholders.	Comply	BAM stimulates shareholders to register for and participate in the general meeting. At this meeting the shareholders are given the opportunity to either vote in person or provide a proxy to a person at their discretion or an independent third party. They can also communicate with other shareholders.
4.3.1	Voting as deemed fit
	Shareholders, including institutional investors (pension funds, insurance companies, investment institutions and asset managers), should exercise their voting rights on an informed basis and as they deem fit. Institutional investors that use the services of proxy advisors (i) should encourage those proxy advisors to be prepared to enter into a dialogue with the company regarding their voting policy, voting guidelines and voting recommendations; and (ii) ensure that their votes are cast in line with their own voting policy.	N.A.	This best practice provision is aimed at the Company's shareholders.
4.3.2	Providing voting proxies or voting instructions
	The company should give shareholders and other persons entitled to vote the possibility of issuing voting proxies or voting instructions to an independent third party prior to the general meeting.	Comply	In the convocation documents for a general meeting a form is included that offers the opportunity to provide a proxy to an independent third party.

4.3.3	Cancelling the binding nature of a nomination or dismissal
	The general meeting of shareholders of a company not having statutory two-tier status (structuurregime) may pass a resolution to cancel the binding nature of a nomination for the appointment of a member of the Management Board or of the Supervisory Board and/or a resolution to dismiss a member of the management board or of the Supervisory Board by an absolute majority of the votes cast. It may be provided that this majority should represent a given proportion of the issued capital, which proportion may not exceed one-third. If this proportion of the capital is not represented at the meeting, but an absolute majority of the votes cast is in favor of a resolution to cancel the binding nature of a nomination, or to dismiss a board member, a new meeting may be convened at which the resolution may be passed by an absolute majority of the votes cast, regardless of the proportion of the capital represented at the meeting.	N.A.	The AoA of BAM stipulate: 15.6. The General Meeting may overrule the binding nature of the nomination by the Supervisory Board by a resolution adopted by absolute majority of the votes cast, if such majority represents more than one-thirds of the issued capital. 15.7. If the shareholders withhold their support from the binding nomination of the Supervisory Board by an absolute majority of the votes, but such majority does not represent at least one-thirds of the issued share capital, a new General Meeting may be convened at which the nomination may be rejected by absolute majority of the votes, regardless of the proportion of the capital representing such majority.
4.3.4	Voting right on financing preference shares
	The voting right attaching to financing preference shares should be based on the fair value of the capital contribution.	N.A.	No financing preference shares have been issued at this time.
4.3.5	Publication of institutional investors' voting policy
	Institutional investors should implement principle 4.4 when drawing up their engagement policy. Institutional investors should publish their engagement policy on their website.	N.A.	This best practice provision is aimed at the Company's shareholders.
4.3.6	Report on the implementation of institutional investors' voting policy
	Institutional investors should report at least annually, on their website, on how they implemented their engagement policy. The report should provide in any case a general description of their voting behaviour, as well as an explanation of the most significant votes and the use of the services of proxy advisors. "Most significant votes" should be understood in any event to mean: i. votes on matters that have received substantive media attention or votes on items that are regarded by institutional investors as a priority in the run-up to the general meeting season;	N.A.	This best practice provision is aimed at the Company's shareholders.

	ii. votes on a resolution on the agenda of a general meeting (a) that are of strategic importance, or (b) where the institutional investor disagrees with the resolution of the company's Management Board; or iii. votes in general meetings of companies in which the institutional investor has a large holding compared to the institutional investor's holding in other investee companies. In addition, institutional investors should report on their website at least once per quarter on whether and, if so, how they have voted as shareholders for each company and voting item. In the report, institutional investors should disclose the key points of the dialogues they have conducted with companies. If an institutional investor votes against a resolution of the Management Board or abstains from voting on a resolution of the Management Board, the institutional investor should explain the reasons for its voting behaviour to the Management Board either pro-actively or at the company's request.
4.3.7	Abstaining from voting in event of a larger short position than long position
	Shareholders will abstain from voting if their short position in the company is larger than their long position.	N.A.	This best practice provision is aimed at the Company's shareholders.
4.3.8	Share lending
	Shareholders should recall their lent shares before the voting record date of a general meeting of the company if the agenda for that meeting includes one or more significant matters. The shareholder should determine what is regarded as a significant matter, but this will include, in any event, resolutions on the agenda of a general meeting: i. that is of strategic importance; ii. where the shareholder disagrees with the resolution of the Management Board.	N.A.	This best practice provision is aimed at the Company's shareholders.

4.4	RECOGNISING THE OF IMPORTANCE COMPANY STRATEGY
	Principle: Shareholders, including institutional investors, recognise the importance of a strategy focused on sustainable long-term value creation for the company and its affiliated enterprise.	N.A.	This best practice provision is aimed at the Company's shareholders.
4.5	ISSUING DEPOSITORY RECEIPTS FOR SHARES
	Principle: Depositary receipts for shares can be a means of preventing a majority (including a chance majority) of shareholders from controlling the decision-making process as a result of absenteeism at a general meeting. Depositary receipts for shares should not be issued as an anti-takeover protective measure. The board of the trust office should issue voting proxies under all circumstances and without limitations to all depositary receipt holders who request this. The holders of depositary receipts so authorised can exercise the voting right at their discretion. The board of the trust office should have the confidence of the holders of depositary receipts. Depositary receipt holders should have the possibility of recommending candidates for the board of the trust office. The company should not disclose to the trust office information which has not been made public.	N.A.	The Company has not issued depository receipts for shares.
4.5.1	Trust office board
	The board of the trust office should have the confidence of the holders of depositary receipts and operate independently of the company that has issued the depositary receipts. The trust conditions should specify in what cases and subject to what conditions holders of depositary receipts may request the trust office to call a meeting of holders of depositary receipts.	N.A.	The Company has not issued depository rights for shares and therefore also no trust office.
4.5.2	Appointment of board members
	The board members of the trust office should be appointed by the board of the trust office, after the job opening has been announced on the website of the trust office. The meeting of holders of depositary receipts may make recommendations to the board of the trust office for the appointment of persons to the position of board member. No Management Board members or former Management Board members, Supervisory Board members or former Supervisory Board members, employees or permanent advisers of the company should be a member of the board of the trust office.	N.A.	The Company has not issued depository rights for shares and therefore also no trust office.

4.5.3	Board appointment period
	A person may be appointed to the board of the trust office for a maximum of two four-year terms, followed by a maximum of two two-year terms. In the event of a reappointment after an eight-year period, reasons should be given in the report of the board of the trust office.	N.A.	The Company has not issued depository rights for shares and therefore also no trust office.
4.5.4	Attendance of the general meeting
	The board of the trust office should attend the general meeting and should, if desired, make a statement about how it proposes to vote at the meeting.	N.A.	The Company has not issued depository rights for shares and therefore also no trust office.
4.5.5	Exercise of voting rights
	In exercising its voting rights, the trust office should be guided primarily by the interests of the depository receipt holders, taking the interests of the company and the enterprise affiliated with it into account.	N.A.	The Company has not issued depository rights for shares and therefore also no trust office.
4.5.6	Periodic reports
